

June 5, 2009.

Dear Karoosters All,

This is the third quickie newsletter to keep you all in the loop about BoekBedonnerd 2 which from the feedback we are getting is going to be one crackerjack of a gathering.

We have in some fashion finalised our programme, although in true Karoo fashion we of course will have some last minute shifts and changes, BUT the big question, which seems to be the motto for the Confederations and World Cups is...ARE YOU READY??

Please remember to book your accommodation early to avoid disappointment. Some of the guest houses are already full over the entire week. The central booking and reservation contact person has been changed from Anneke Bez to Lizette Vosloo at the Richmond Lodge. Her co-ordinates are bookfairaccommodation@gmail.com.

If any problems arise please contact me at PCBaker@mweb.co.za

Remember to check out the website www.richmondnc.co.za , which is still a work in progress, for any general information you are looking for.

For those who have not received any information previously may I remind you of our present line up and a few who have been added. They are listed on the attached programme. Our local Richmond lass and well known Karoo Gourmet chef will once again be conducting cookery classes over two days. They were a huge success last year. Annatjie is still working on the format the gatherings will take and the next newsletter will be able to fill you in with more details and booking information.

On the reading front, Michael reports that he now has a following of over 120 per lunch time session and is lending books to over 200 kids.

Please feel free to contact me with any suggestions and ideas.

Best regards,
